They had a quarrel, and Davis, it is charged, used a flatiron on Smith's head. The injured man, whose skull was fractured, was brought to this city and given medical treatment at the Emergency Hospital. A few days ago his friends took him home, and the police were told Saturday night that he died early in the day. Davis has not yet been arrested, and the local police were asked to look out for him.

RELIEF S FOR INDIA.

Appeal Issued by the Committee of The committee of one hundred for the relief of the sufferers from the India famine, of which Commissioner Macfarland is chairman, has just issued the following ap-

Famine, from lack of rain, is now smiting 10,000,000 of our fellow beings. At this moment death by sheer hunger and thirst hreatens one-sixth of that number. Thousands are starving each twenty-four hours. And the woe has not yet reached its rors still stand countless little children, and rors still stand countless little children, and women, and men, whom food will save. Thank God, relief may almost instantly pass, by cable, from this land of plenty to that India of starvation. Accordingly, only gifts of money are solicited.

What, then, shall we do? What will you do? In the famine districts are charitable relief agencies, efficient, trustworthy, econemical. They need larger supplies. Surely such supplies can be provided, and yet the customary gifts to long-established agencies for the uplifting of the people of India not be at all lessened.

Meanwhile, the government of India has organized relief on a scale unapproached in the history of the world. The number of sufferers officially aided is not less than offerers officially aided is not less to 000,000. Even that aid is wholly ins cient for the awful need.

The death rate is by far the greatest in the native provinces, where the govern-ment has least control.

ment has least control.

In this emergency the committee of one hundred gladly puts itself at your service, the service of the cause.

The Evening Star has freely consented to receive and acknowledge all gifts sent to it. Every expressed wish of donors will be faithfully carried out, and the committee, on its own part, will earnestly seek the best existing agencies for the distribution of undesignated funds.

Together and at once let us move to the rescue. From 2 to 5 cents a day will save a life.

A letter just received by the committee of one hundred on India famine relief from Dr. Hume of Ahmednagar, India, having referred to the undiminished need of money for the purchase of food to save the otherwise starving, having recorded the wonderfully favorable fact that the prices of the cheap grains, which can be bought for the people's us had not materially increased, says; 'lothing also is urgently needed just now. In the hot, dry season people can live and sleep with but little clothing, but when the rains come, and ground and houses and people are drenched, a blanket and a cloth to a man and a woman will make a marked difference in both distress and mortality. That is one

DEDICATORY SERVICES.

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church Consecrated to Public Worship.
St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, on D street between 10th and 11th streets southeast, was dedicated yesterday afternoon. The pretty edifice was crowded with an interested audience, and the members of the ongregation and their friends rejoiced together over the success of the undertaking. In addition to the dedication services a new pastor was installed. At the morning service Rev. A. C. Schiff was formally inducted into office according to the forms of the church. The ritualistic service and the sermon of Rev. W. H. Geddes, the outgoing pastor, were in German.

The new pastor has only been engaged in the active duties of the ministry for the past two years. He is a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary and College in Columbus, Ohio, and his first charge was at Warren, Ohio, where he has been for the past two years.

Appropriate dedicatory exercises were held at the afternoon service, Rev. M. Doermann of Chicago delivering a sermon in German and Rev. J. E. A. Doermann of this city one in English. the sermon of Rev. W. H. Geddes, the out-tried in the Police Court which showed something of the conduct that is carried on something of the conduct that is carried on out there. It was shown that young girls who went to the place were furnished beer and were permitted to dance on the pavlion in the Columbia Pleasure Garden. While it was denied that any of them became intoxicated, it was shown that one of them participated in a disorderly scene, during which blows were passed.

Major Sylvester addressed a letter to State's Attorney W. M. Lewin of Prince George's county a few days ago, calling his attention to the condition of affairs about the District line. The letter reads:

"The police authorities of the District of Columbia are endeavoring to maintain order at Deanwood station, the terminus of the Chesapeake Beach railroad, where the passergers for the District of Columbia

Thesapeake Beach railroad, where the pas sengers for the District of Columbia make a change of cars, but the disorderly persons take advantage of the nearness of your county line in order to evade arrest, and the police are experiencing considerable difficulty in that respect.

"If within your power, I have to request that your county will make such provision as will put an end to any and all disorder in that locality so far as your side of the jurisdiction is concerned. Your co-operation in this matter will be fully appreciated, not only by this department, but by the public generally, who on Sundays especially patronize this railroad."

sure a fine that he would, as far as the law permits, aid in an effort to correct the condition of affairs there.

Major Sylvester suggested that the sheriff might send three or four firm men there, and with their assistance he thought the District policemen would be able to keep away bad characters and maintain order, so that Chesapeake Beach passengers and others would not be annoyed. Then, too, the united efforts of the officers might be the means of saving some of the young girls who have been frequenting at least one of the drinking places and being served strong drink.
